Each and every day, the important work you do makes an impact on philanthropy around the world. Together, we can empower fundraisers, strengthen communities, and transform the way donors give. Please join me today and make your gift to the BE the CAUSE Campaign to support the AFP Foundation for Philanthropy.

Your investment in the AFP Foundation for Philanthropy will help support local, national, and international programs:

- Diversity & Inclusion is a pillar of the AFP Strategic Plan, scholarships for people of diverse communities is a priority.
- Professional Development through professional development grants (formerly scholarships) provide fundraisers and nonprofit leaders with education, training, and leadership development opportunities.
- Research that increases knowledge of fundraising, philanthropy, and social innovation includes the Growth in Giving Initiative.

If our chapter reaches our campaign goal of $1854, we will receive 35% of what we've raised as a grant back to our chapter. So the more you give, the more our chapter gets back to support our educational programming and provide scholarships that benefit our members. I am thrilled to report that our Central Illinois Chapter Board Members are leading the way with 100% participation in the campaign. We are already over 62% of the way to our goal and are asking our members to take us the rest of the way!

As an AFP member, you continually demonstrate your commitment to professional education, leadership development, and ethical and effective fundraising practice. When you make a gift to the BE the CAUSE Campaign, you are investing in the profession’s future and advancing philanthropy. You are part of something that really matters!

If you would like more information, please visit afpfoundation.org/bethecause or contact me with questions at kberchtold@southsideofficeofconcern.org or 309/222-2751. I'd love to hear from you. Thank you for your consideration and for everything you do to make Central Illinois a great place to live!!

Best wishes,

Kristen Berchtold, CFRE

Girl Scouts of Central Indiana announces a search partnership with Evergreen Executive Source, LLC to identify candidates and advise on selection of a new CEO. Evergreen is a retained search firm with depth of experience in nonprofit executive sourcing and selection, and has conducted searches nationwide for over a decade serving the interests of Girl Scout councils in every state. All information provided to Evergreen will be treated with the utmost confidentiality.

CRITICAL GOALS

Under the incoming CEO, focus will continue on these key priority areas for 2017-2020:

1) Reach and serve more girls from all communities.
2) Deliver consistent, quality outcome-driven girl program.
3) Continue to build capacity through board engagement to deliver on the Council mission.
3) Work collaboratively with the central Indiana community and Girl Scouts of the USA to build and enhance the Girl Scout brand.

Successful measures of accomplishment will be determined in the following areas.

Increasing membership to serve girls of all communities and backgrounds.
Providing girls with the leadership tools that prepare them for success in the real world.
Ensuring diverse, reliable, sustainable funding and financial stability.
Inspiring others to be high performers by demonstrating leadership and courage, and fostering a culture that encourages partnership between staff and volunteers, so that Girl Scouts will be viewed as the preeminent girls’ organization in central Indiana.
Demonstrating the highest personal qualities of integrity, judgment, adaptability and self-awareness.

Director (or Sr. Director) of Development, College of Education

As the oldest college at Illinois State University, the College of Education (the college) is poised to build upon a long history of academic excellence and research. Illinois State University is among the largest teacher preparation institutions in the nation and ranks among the top 20 nationally for alumni who are National Board Certified Teachers. The university prepares more teachers and administrators than any other university in the state of Illinois. It provides a unique opportunity for teacher preparation through its diverse laboratory schools.

The position of Director of Development (or Sr. Director of Development, depending on the qualifications and experience of the holder of the position) will play a key role in advancing the college, and Illinois State University, to achieve even greater success in the future. This position offers a talented and motivated development professional with an opportunity to join an accomplished and collaborative University Advancement team and to be part of a vibrant and diverse college and an outstanding educational institution that is ranked among the nation’s top public universities and is recognized as one of the best universities to work for.

The Director (or Sr. Director) of Development will be responsible for major gift fundraising activities including identification, cultivation, solicitation, and stewarding of major gift prospects. He/she will work within the Division of University Advancement and will be an important partner with the dean of the college and other administrative leaders and faculty in advancing the college’s and university’s strategic fundraising priorities. He/she will be part of Illinois State University’s most ambitious comprehensive campaign and will play a prominent role in leading the college’s campaign efforts.

The Director (or Sr. Director) of Development will supervise another development professional working on behalf of the college and the laboratory schools. The position is full-time and requires a Bachelor’s degree and at least 3 years of experience in development/fundraising or equivalent work experience that demonstrates the capacity for success in major gift fundraising. Experience in supervising the work of other development officers is preferred. Please apply online at www.jobs.ilstu.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=71846
